

Maidenhead at the Movies

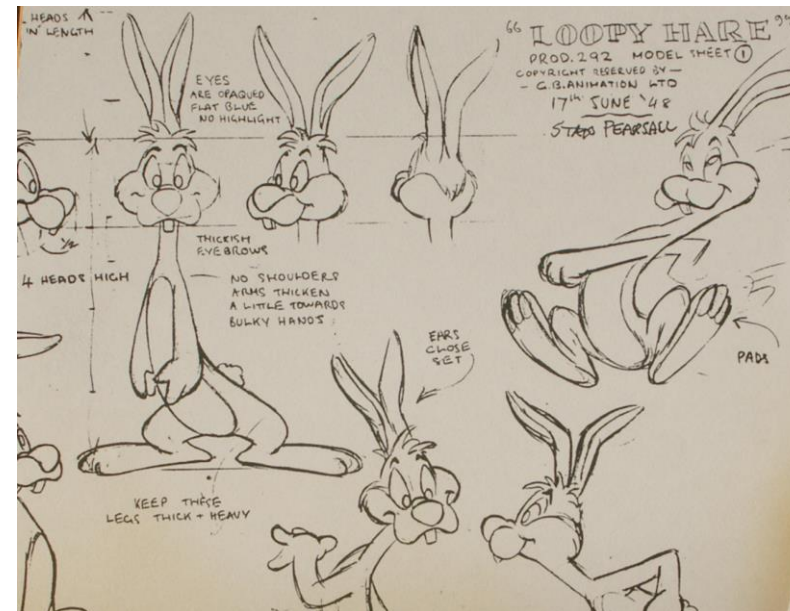

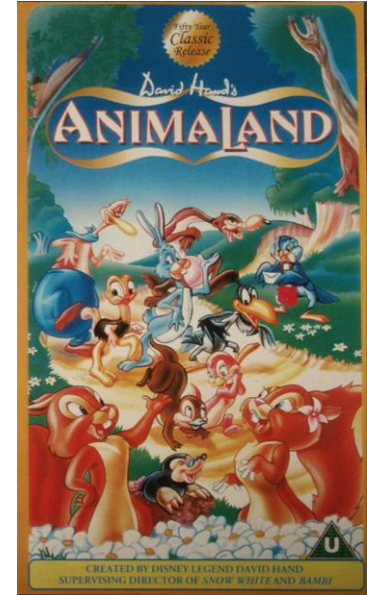

Bray Studios

- Bray Studios (near Maidenhead) was the home of Hammer Film Productions from 1952-66.
- Used until 2012 for TV programmes, films, adverts and music videos.
- E.g. Dracula, Frankenstein

Cookham

- GB Animations were based in Cookham at Moor Hall in the late 1940s.
- Animaland was created here by David Hand and his team (pictured below).

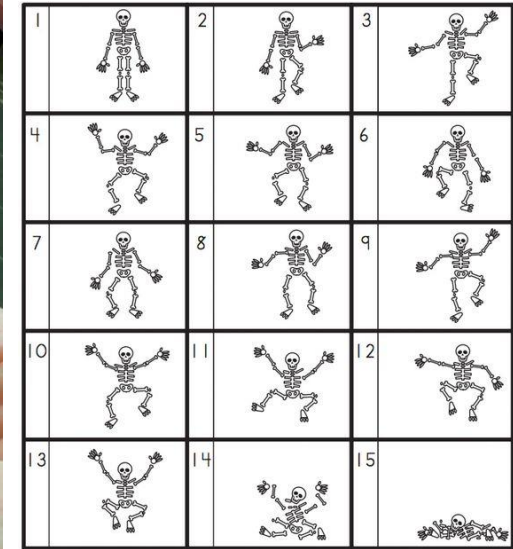

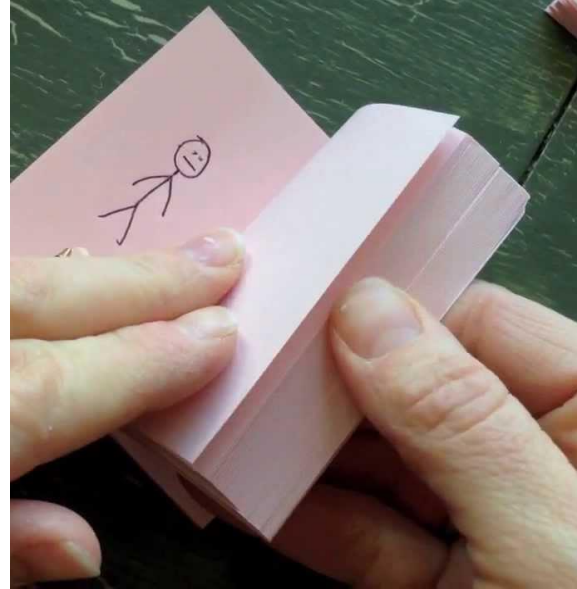

A model sheet for Loopy Hare showing his features and movements.

Activity 1

Make you own flipbook:

- Use some post-its to design your own (draw your figure or animal in a slightly different position on each page)
- Use some ready made templates (look on-line)

Activity 2

Make a Frankenstein's Monster puppet

- Colour a paper bag green using paint or crayons.
(If you don't have a bag you could use paper or card glued together)
- Add eyes, hair and a bolt.
- Make up your own play or film!

Activity 3

Make your own stop motion animation!

- Use small toys or make your own character from playdough.
- Move your character slightly taking a photo each time with stop motion.
- Adults can download the Stop Motion app.

